

2018-2019 Ceredo-Kenova Memorial Youth Scholarship Application for Marshall University Students

For students graduating in 2018 from Spring Valley High School who attended Ceredo or Kenova Elementary Schools. Recipients are selected on the basis of scholastic achievement and financial need. First priority is given to students demonstrating community service, citizenship, athletic, musical or other extra-curricular endeavors and leadership abilities.

This scholarship honors Mr. Null for his numerous contributions to Ceredo-Kenova and his efforts to promote youth sports in the community and to provide a continuing legacy consistent with his desire to promote educational opportunities at Marshall University while shaping, developing and improving the lives of young men and women from Ceredo-Kenova. This scholarship also supports the memory of Mr. Null's first grandchild, Kevin R. McGlone.
