

2018-2019 Keith Albee
Scholarship Application for
Marshall University Students

For students from Cabell or Wayne counties in West Virginia or Lawrence County in Ohio with financial need. Recipients for this renewable award shall be full-time students who have graduated in the top third of their high school graduating class.

This trust, to be known as the "Keith Albee Founders Trust," is hereby established by the Greater Huntington theatre Corp. in the name of its principle theatre in Huntington, West Virginia, to honor its founders, Abe and Sol Hyman of shining memory. They were true to America's ideals, and to their religious beliefs. They judged each man, without prejudice, on his own merits. They regarded all mankind as born equally precious in the sight of God. Service to others was an important part of theirs lives. The Keith Albee family now seeks to open doors to the potential for full citizenship and empowerment that lies in education, thus continuing the works and practices of its founders, by establishing scholarships and/ or grants at Marshall University for the economically disadvantaged as more specifically set for herein.
